

ATTENTION: NORTH COUNTY SCHOLARS ENROLLED IN GRADES 6-12 Still Looking for a Fun Learning Experience Before School Begins?

Consider joining The College Bound North County Project Jumpstart Academies Phase I or Phase II, a program offered by Concerned Parents Alliance/College Bound Programs and UC San Diego Community Based Organizations for under-represented and under-served students enrolled at North County schools.

Registration is now open for either of the two FREE College Bound North County Academies

PHASE I DETAILS - 6th – 8th Grade Middle School Scholars

Date: July 26th – July 30th

Time: 12 Noon – 4:00pm

Location: Black Mountain Middle School 9353 Oviedo Street, San Diego, 92129

Additional Info: Transportation, Educational Field trip, Lunch and Snacks Provided

PHASE II DETAILS – 9th – 12th Grade High School Scholars & Parents/Guardians

Dates: One Saturday a month on 9/25, 10/23, 11/20 and 12/18

Time: 9:00am – 12 Noon

Location: Designated North County Facility

Additional Info: Continental Breakfast, Intro to Year-Round Services & Programs Offered by North County Community/Civic Based Organizations and Educational Field Trips

Topics/Themes Covered: College and Career Preparation, Community Service, Educational Incentives/Scholar Recognition, Educational Field Trips, Financial Literacy, Leadership Development, Parent/Family Meetings, Physical Activities, Racial Equity and Inclusion, Self-Esteem Building, Social-Emotional Well Being, STEM, Visual and Performing Arts.

ALL FREE, FUN AND ENRICHING EXPERIENCES! REGISTER TODAY!

Registration Link for Both Middle School and High School Academies:

<https://forms.gle/T4ReoF6XMAuUzzZZ7>

The College Bound North County Academies are Funded by The San Diego Foundation

